CLASP is pleased to be offering this Two-Day Intensive Training conducted by Sherri Gorin Slovin, Esquire, a practicing Collaborative Law Attorney and highly skilled trainer who is a Founding Member and past Chairperson of the Collaborative Family Lawyers of Cincinnati. She currently serves on the Board of International Academy of Collaborative Professionals. This course includes a complete introduction to Collaborative Law theory, practice, and skills development, as well as ethical considerations. It is appropriate for attorneys new to collaborative law as well as for experienced attorneys wishing to improve upon their skills. For those who have already been trained, consider attending day 2 only, which will include role playing opportunities, as well as discussions related to more advanced topics. Allied professionals interested in learning more about the collaborative practice are also encouraged to attend.
